EDITORIAL

REAL ART VERSUS MODERN ART

Time passes on relentlessly and life is so short. What we make of our worldly existence makes us successful or not, but this success should not be all worldly! (The necessary dollars to keep body and soul together)

We should have an aesthetic sense to appreciate the external things of this lovely world of ours. Things created since the world began by the invisible hand of the Supreme Being.

The beauty of sunrise, a sunset, mystery of night, morning, noon, afternoon an evening. The beauty of the trees, bushes, flowers, changed only by the seasons of the year, which if observed are nothing short of miracles.

Winds which seem to come from nowhere. The calm and turbulent sea. Last and by no means least, the human form divine. Miracles? By all means.

ART, the most misunderstood word in our world of today. Let us look for a moment at the works of the truly great master paintings of the past. They depicted nature in all its splendor. The seasons, moods of nature, as well as the moods of the human beings. All produced as God put them here. Now we are told this is all outmoded. Just a lot of pish-posh. So what do they do? Dismember the poor human being, distort the truth to the extent of the ridiculous. This they call modern art. Pictures that have to be explained to the public. What is it? Oh! nothing in particular. --- Just a pattern of line and color. Desecration of Art, an insult to the human intelligence. The very sad part of it all, this is being taught to our youth of our nation as the thing in art.

I wish someone would or could explain how art can be modernized. There are principles of composition and tone gradation filling a given space, gracefully and pleasingly without jarring the mind of the onlooker.

A picture which has to be explained is no picture at all. And now for the sake of improving Real Art let us come out of this "Jazzy Age" and come back to sanity. If not for our own satisfaction for the savior of our precious youth for in them depend the future of our world.

Special honor to Dean Cornwell by Art & Physique

Dean Cornwell is one of the very few illustrators whose work brings out the finer qualities of real art. His perfection of drawing rendering and jewel like quality in his coloring, sets him at the top of his profession, having few equals. We doubt if there is another artist today who can paint such great harmony and melody of color diffused with the geniusness of rendering effects that are masterful. His work is internationally famous and his paintings of the American tradition will no doubt live on forever in the History of America. His help to so many struggling American artists is proof enough that here indeed is a great American. We will make every effort to publish some of his work.

THE PAINTINGS

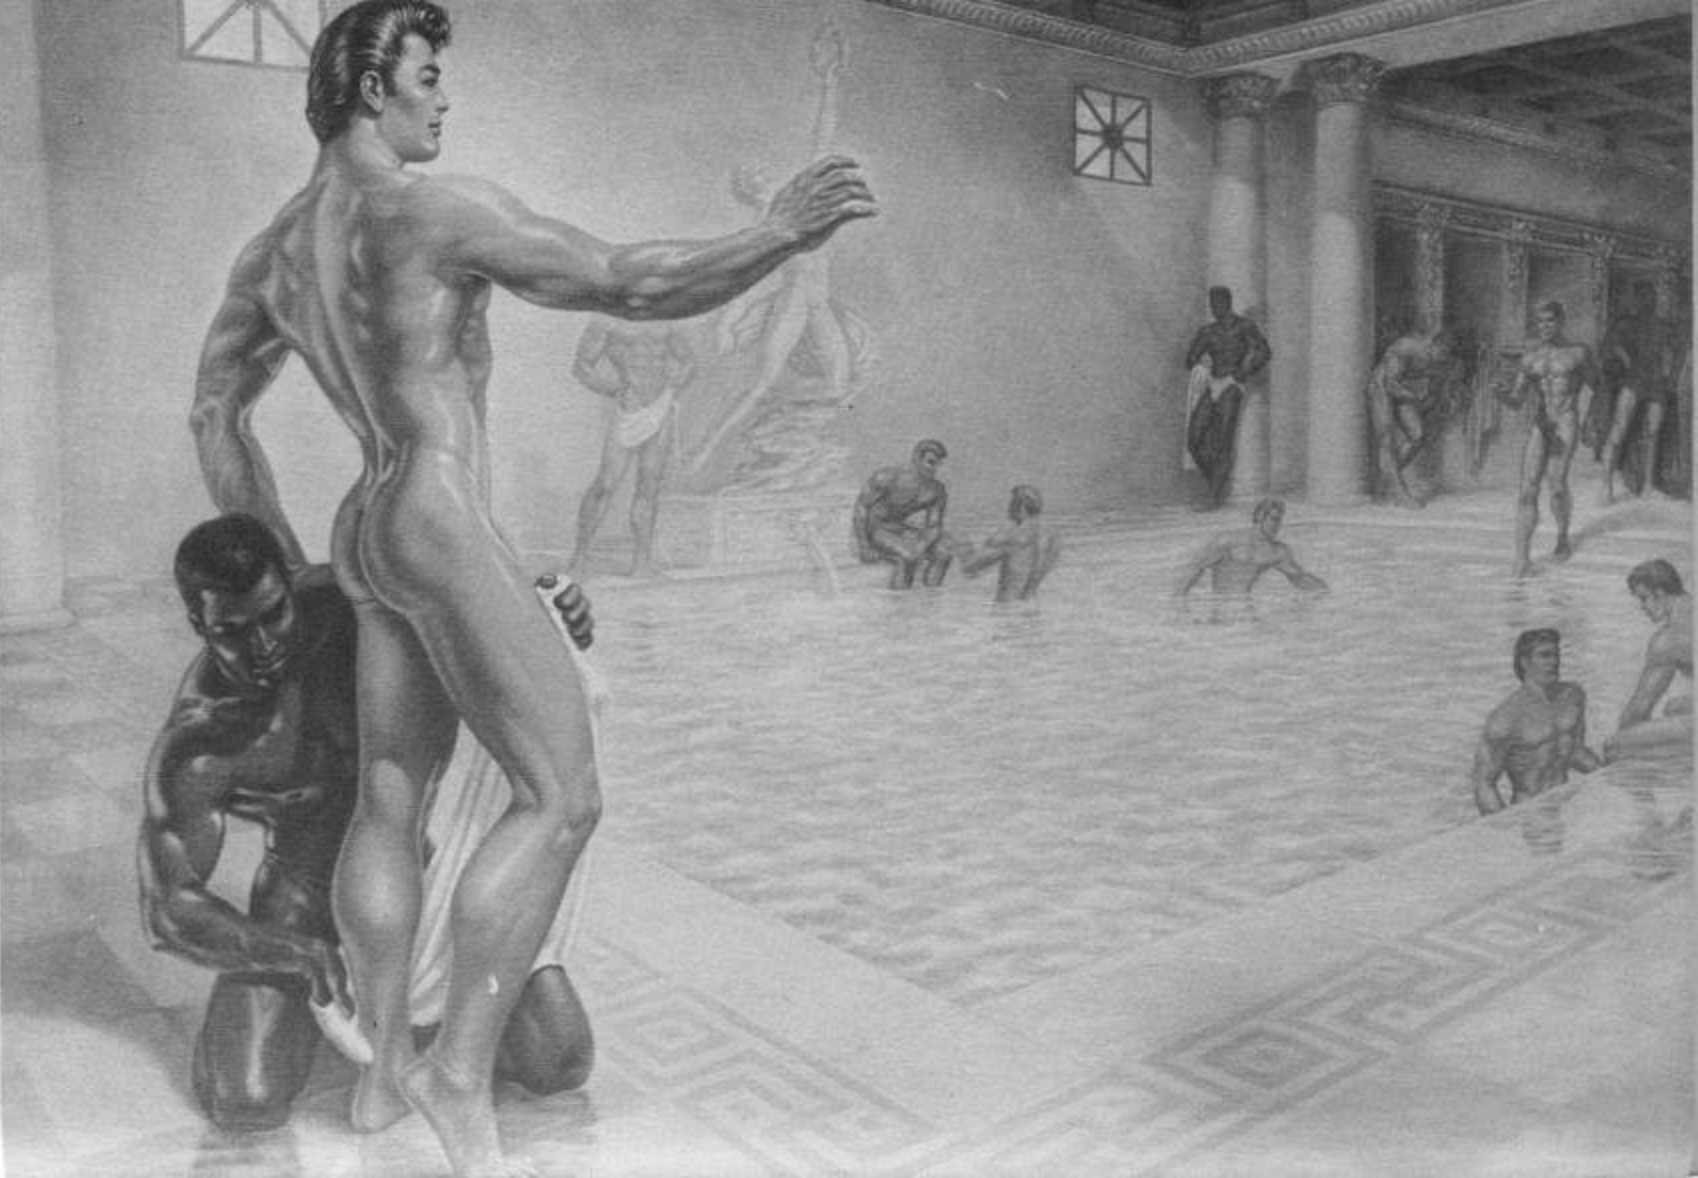

This painting by John R. Campbell, who has painted many famous Americans. The oil painting is no larger than 11 x 14 inches yet required two months to execute. The work is produced by many glazes stained into the canvas. You may wonder at the extreme perfection of the drawing with fine detail, while the colors glow and sparkle. However, the artist was dissatisfied with the work because he could not seem to loosen up enough or get away from his photograph that he used. It is a portrait of Frank Giardina 408 Second Ave N. Y. C. Frank has many beautiful photographs of models for sale should you be interested.

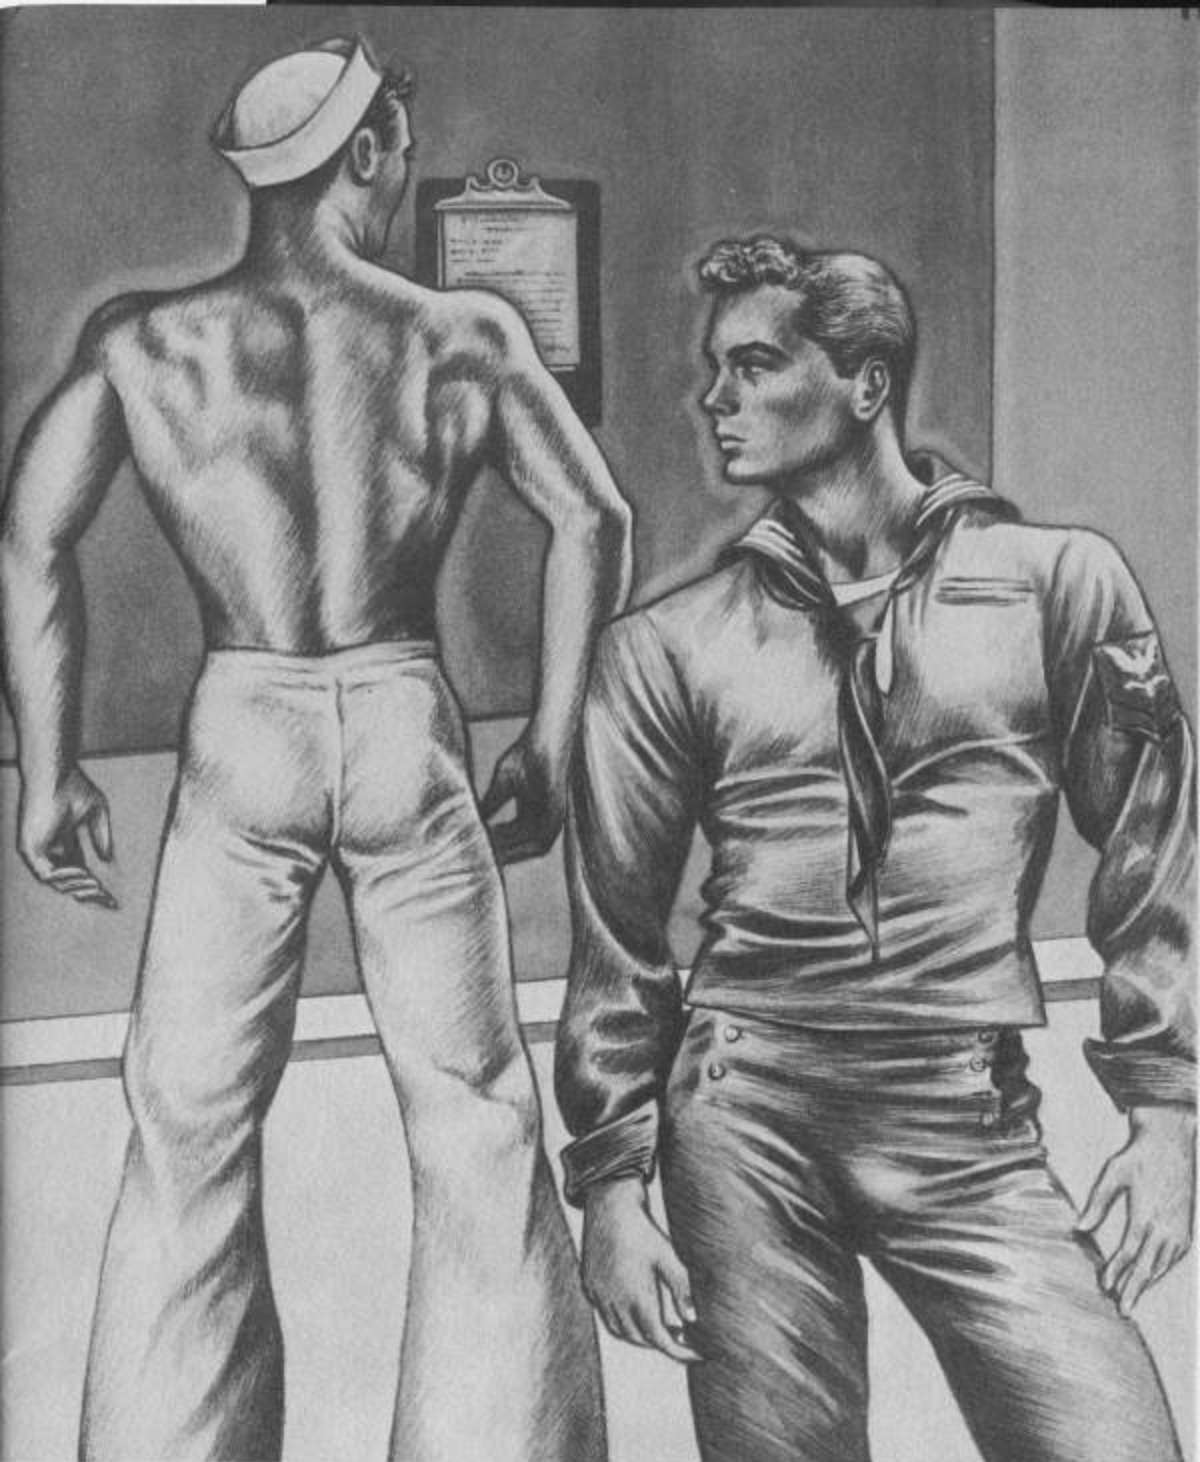

"JACK"

Pencil drawing by John R. Campbell

This magnificent pencil drawing is an example of what can be done with the pencil. Advice to Art Students. Do not rush your work. The average time for the above drawing should take from four to six hours. Learn to draw first in pencil.

ROMAN BATHERS
Painting by Quintance

"SPECIAL ORDERS"
by William MacLane

This fine work may serve as a reminder to look forward to our "Special Navy Issue" of Art & Physique our fourth issue which is to be published next. Be sure not to miss it. For beautiful paintings write William MacLane, Dept AWP Box 9012 Queen Anne Sts. Seattle, Washington.

"ROMAN BATHS" by George Quintance is his latest work. We are held spell bound at A & P by this artists continued progress to make each painting better than the last. His fame has traveled worldwide and considered by many to be the No. 1 painter of the male physique. The fine blends seldom seen in other works are an indication of the real mastery of the great oils.

GEORGE QUINTANCE artist

SWAN LAKE above is another original oil painting by the international famous artist George Quintance. Mr Quintance is famous for his oil paintings, yet he is an outstanding sculptor and photographer. Copies of his sculptured work may be purchased at very reasonable prices. His photographs of models are posed beautifully and lighted as only Quintance can do. One critic wrote "A real artistic feeling for form." Do not miss his models for your collection. A real treat for any art collector. His latest catalog .50cents and any of his paintings available in 35MM color slides. Send $1.00 George Quintance Dept. A-P Box 192 Phoenix, Arizona.

Mr. Carl V. Corley, artist, is one of A & P's talent find along with Drew Tenet New Orleans artist. Corley one of the best pen and ink artists ever to write to A & P out of hundreds of artists who sent in work. He has his own story illustrated. We think some syndicate would be interested in featuring this extraordinary work to a nation wide audience. Fine work such as this is seldom seen, but in few national comics if any. Mr Corley offers fine physique studies Send $1.00 to Carl V. Corley Florence, Miss. Drew Tenet N. O. artist is another fine talent find from our nation wide hunt. You may see some very fine paintings by Drew in future issues of Art & Physique.

MacLane Studio A&P Box 9012 Queen Anne Station, Seattle 9, Washington.

Pencil drawing upper left by Drew, taken from A.M.G. photo, who took our advice to draw first, then paint, after you have learned proportion. His talent developed from nothing to something because he practices. Picture upper right by David Angelo, England's most talked about artist is another A & P find in our talent search. He has paintings and photographs for sale. David Angelo 137 Victoria Road, London N 22 England. You will see new paintings by David in our next issue. He is something special.

THE SCULPTURE

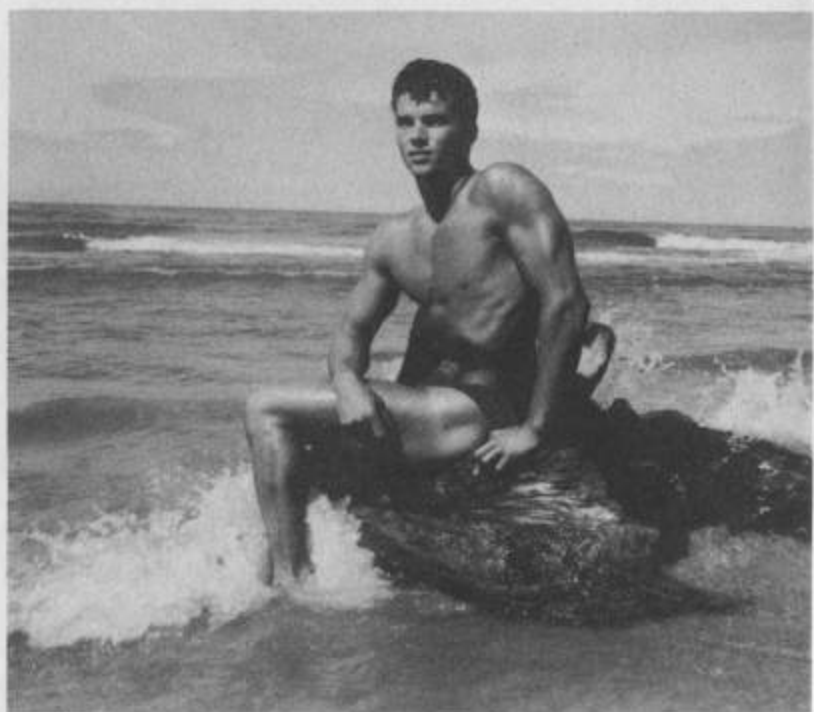

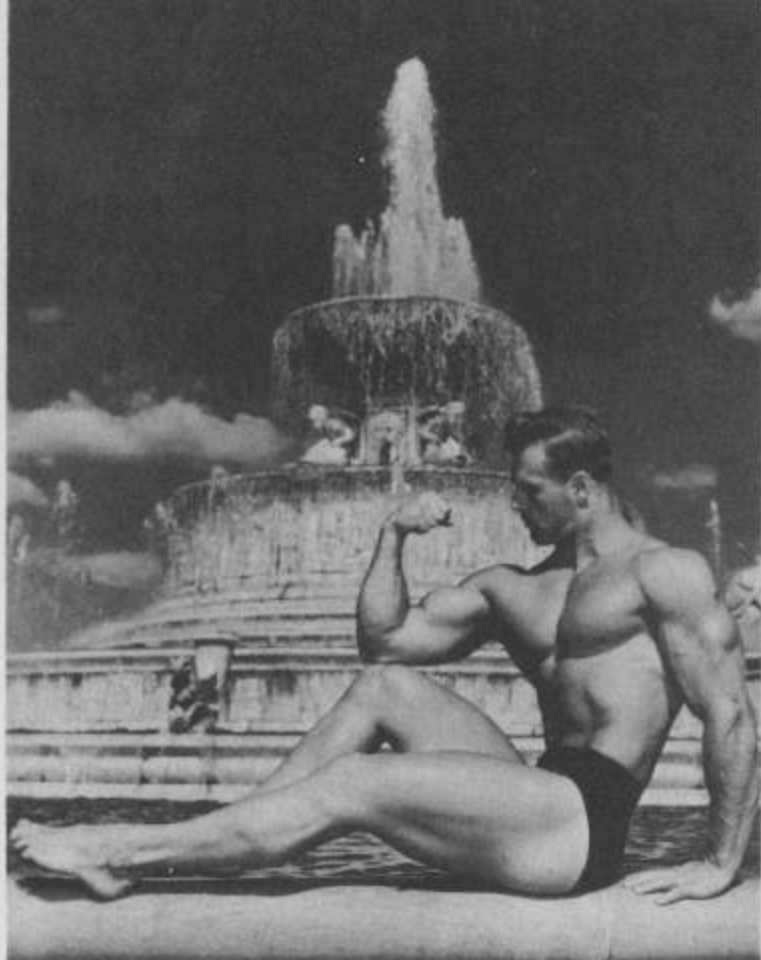

THE HAND OF GOD by Carl Milles, Swedish sculptor is a monument to the late Swedish Inventor, C. E. Johansson, inventor. This and the following two photographs courtesy of International Swedish Press

THE ORPHEUS MONUMENT, created by the famous Swedish sculpture Carl Milles, who died September 19, 1955. The monument is outside the Stockholm Concert Hall and illustrates the old Greek legend about Orpheus who descended into Hades, where he aroused the dead with his song. Below is Carl Milles in his Stockholm home.

These two beautiful studies from Bob Delmonteque Box 6061 Dept. A-P Miami Beach, Florida. Bob offers many model photos and a beautiful book, over 300 poses. This $30.00 book for only $3.00. Bob brings his work to such artistic posing that few photographers anywhere can offer such fine exceptional work. Write today.

FOUNTAIN OF THE FOUR WINDS by Enrique Alferez

Sculpture for Greater New Orleans

This beautiful group of four figures represents the four winds, North, South, East, and West. It is one of the many beautiful works of sculpture for greater New Orleans. One of our Presidents remarked at its beauty, which now adorns the New Orleans Airport. The work by Alferez, Mexican sculpture, internationally famous for his outstanding work.

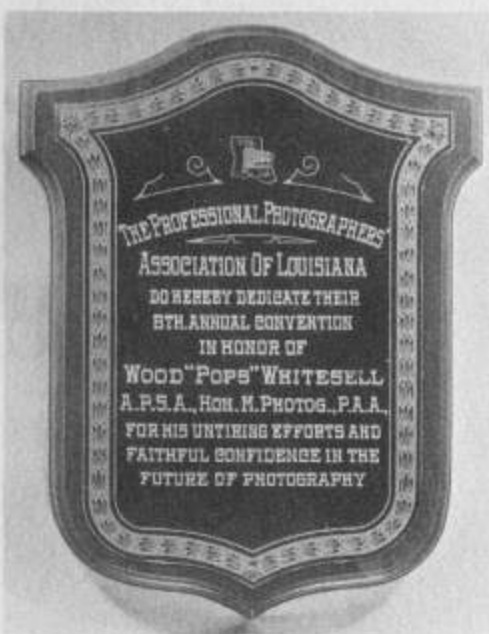

"MEET" "Pops" WHITESELL ONE OF AMERICAS GREATEST

Every one who has met "Pops" likes him. He has a unique way of winning friends with the highest and the lowest. It is not surprising to see some famous celebrity or Hollywood movie star fly from some distant city just to have Mr. Whitesell photograph him. He is now past 80 years of age and has been in the photography business since early 20's. He came to N.O. in 1918. "Pops" is known from coast to coast by almost every camera club in America.

He is the most beloved photographer in America and has always helped boys with their photography. His work has great power and depth. "Pops" is a lover of Rembrandt and often strives for a Rembrandt lighting. A collection of his work now hangs in the "George Eastman House" an honor which is equal to photographers, as the "Hall of Fame" is to other famous Americans.

"Pops" was born on a farm near Libertyville, Indiana. He always made everything from cameras, to enlargers, to shower baths, to shoe soles. His real name is Joseph Woodmen Whitesell, but to his friends he is just plain "Pops". In 1946 Mr. Whitesell was invited by the Smithsonian Institute to display his photographs. In 1949 was awarded "Honorary Master of Photography" by the Photographers Association of America. He is a life member of the Detroit Camera Club Council, one of the greatest clubs in America.

If you enjoy his photographs "Pops" would love to hear from you. You can write him at 726 St. Peter of New Orleans, La. "Pops" is a very busy man and may not have time to answer them but you may be sure every letter will be appreciated. A short time ago "Pops" had an accident, lost one of his legs, but to his surprise hundreds of friends rallied to his aid and presented him with an artificial leg.

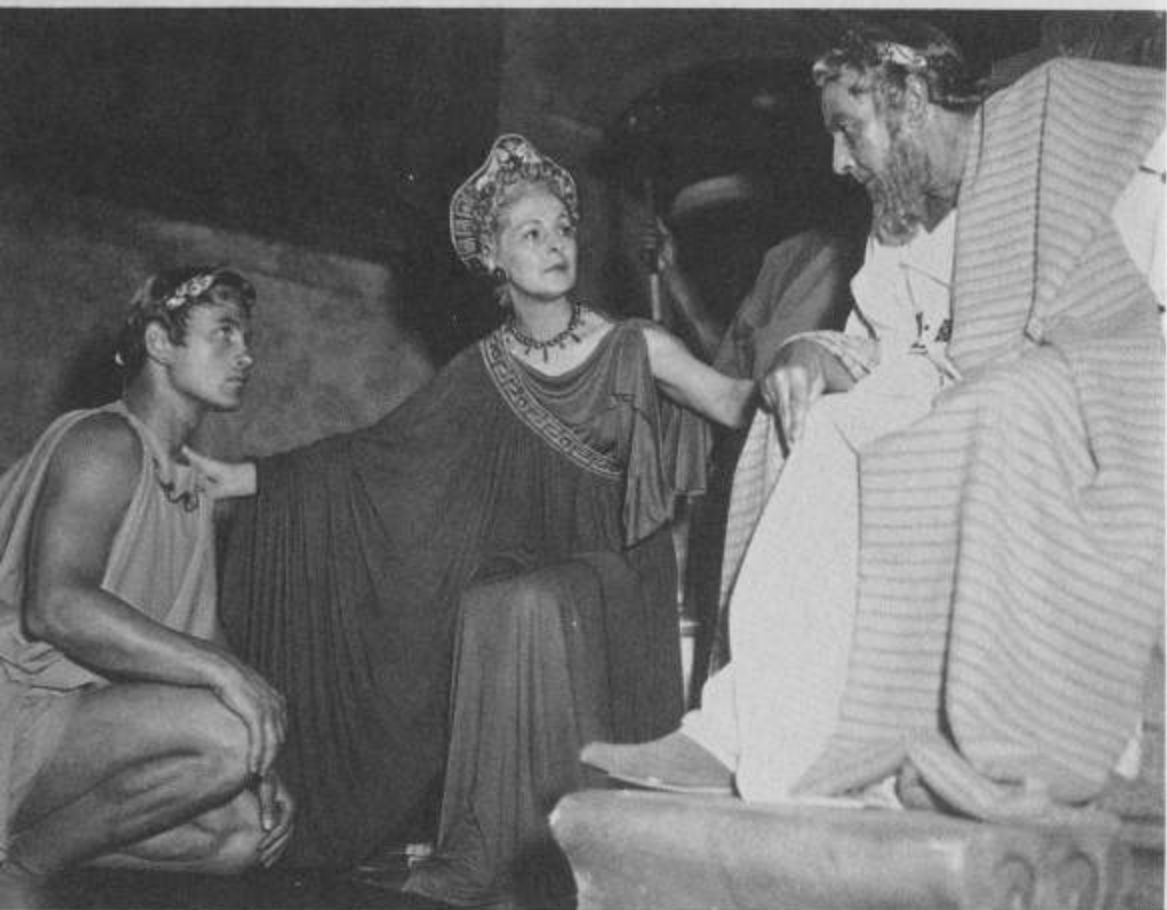

"TELEGRAMS"

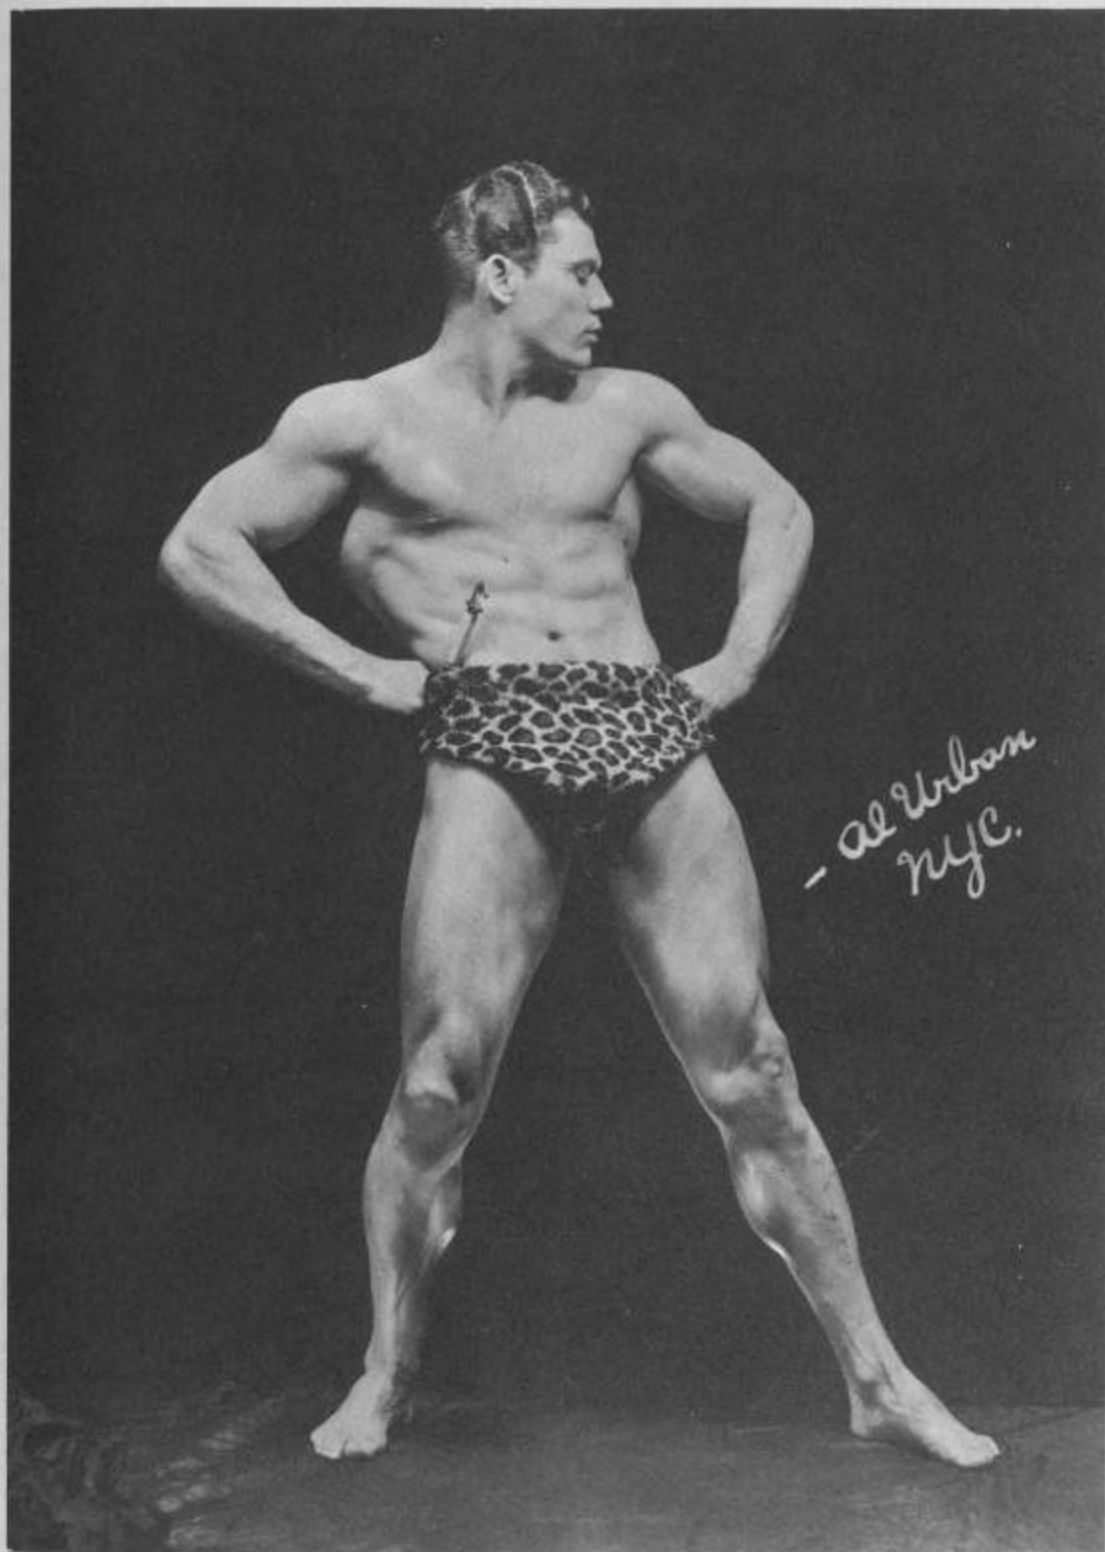

"TELEGRAMS" by world famous "Pops" has a depth like the great Rembrandt painting. His expression is wonderful and light soft.

DREAMS by Whitesell is one of his very fine portraits. The boy looks as if he could speak to you, telling you his thoughts. Below is an American Aviator. "Pops" is considered by many to be the best group photographer. Today his works rank with the greatest.

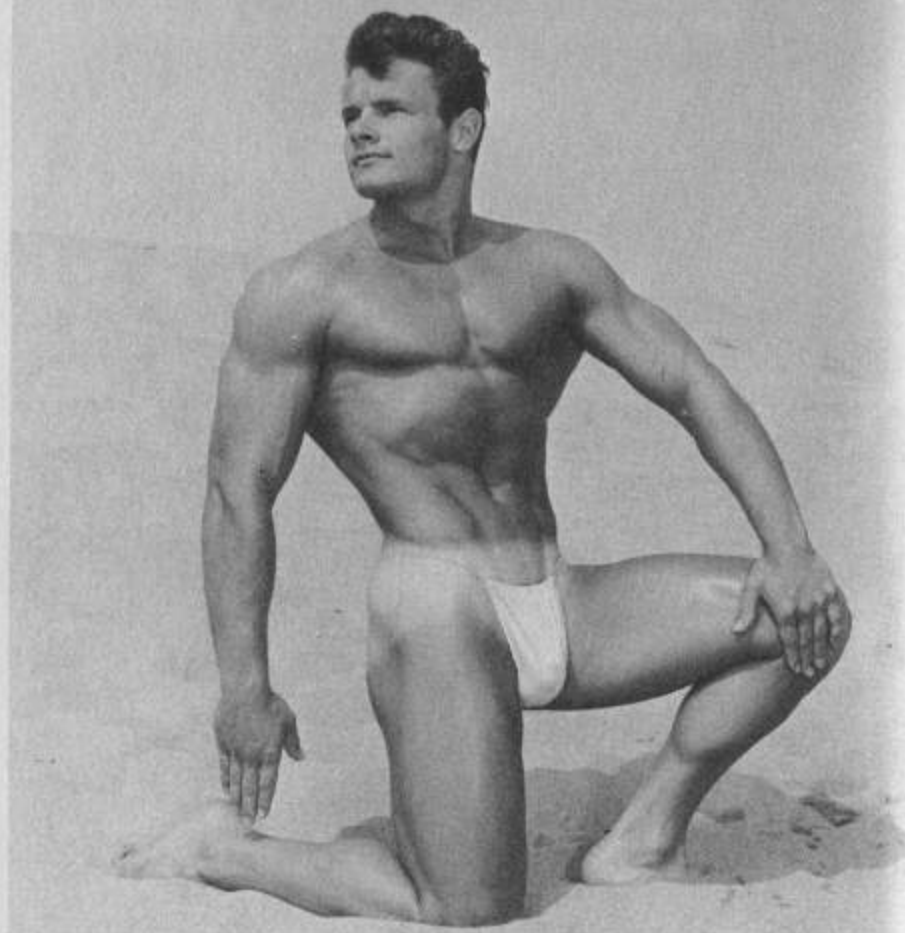

Art & Physique honors movie Helen of Troy by Warner Bros. It has all the glory of ancient Greece. Features handsome Jack Sernas. His picture above.

BERT GOODRICH of Hollywood by Al Urban, world renowned physique photographer. Bert was the first man to win the Mr. America title in 1939. He was discovered by that camera wizard Al Urban who encouraged Goodrich to enter and win Mr. N.Y.C. title in '39 and Mr. America the same year. He is also wearing the same trunks when he doubled for Weismuller and Buster Crabbs in the "Tarzan" movies. It is fitting we put this great star opposite our movie star in Helen of Troy, opposite page. Bert is a swell guy and a real athlete, a star in his field.

ROMAN SLAVE MARKET by Elmer Freitas

THIS PAINTING WON FIRST PRIZE in our Art Contest. Mr. Freitas lives at 969 Normandie Ave. Los Angeles 29 California. Many paintings were entered but this tops them all. Mr Freitas may sell 8 x 10 photos of his work at a later date. Many wrote and said the contest closed too quickly. Watch for the date of our new contest.

THE BEST IN COMMERCIAL ART

John Whitcomb stands at the top in his field. His work has the freshness of Spring and his drawing of handsome men and beautiful girls of the day are second to none. Without a doubt there are many imitators of his work but no duplicators. His work has become so famous through the Ladies Home Journal, Cosmopolitan and others that he has brought the attention of movie stars. Many have posed for him. He plays records while he paints and is also an organist. Mr. Whitcomb is also talented in another way, being the most handsome artist in the big time. One might wonder if he hasn't been approached by the movies.

Our Jantzen ad which appears on the back of this cover is an outstanding example of his mastery over the brush with tempera colors. Jantzen has brought the level of Commercial Art to a higher standard than previous years by having Mr. Whitcomb do their art work. This all goes to show that Jantzen is first in the field of men's wear on the beach, or in every day wear. Into their products goes the choicest of materials combined with master craftsmanship to give you what others lack. The reason for their continued growth to the largest and finest men's wear in the country. They also have a complete line for women. We are proud to display the Jantzen ad and hope we may look forward to seeing one a year of the new beautiful Jantzen ad.
